

Ecstasy: use and prevention

Author(s)

Federal Centre for Health Education

Published

1998

Type

Report

Abstract

Volume 2 of the specialist booklet series "Research and Practice of Health Promotion" documents the contents and course of this seminar and reflects the knowledge gained from various studies regarding the use of illegal drugs, such as ecstasy, amphetamines and LSD. It documents the principles, theories and conceptual approaches for promising prevention programmes that were elaborated and discussed in working groups, and presents the recommendations for the prevention of ecstasy use that were formulated on this basis

Web Link

http://www.bzga.de/botmed_60801070.html

View PDF