

The drug information and monitoring service (DIMS) in the Netherlands: A unique tool for monitoring party drugs

Author(s)

Niesink R, Nikken G, Jansen F et al

Published

Monday, January 1, 2001 - 12:00

Publisher

Web Document

Abstract

DIMS is the first drugs information and monitoring system and has been providing a service since 1992 for Europe and the rest of the world. It is a unique system for gaining insight into what kind of drugs are on the market and whether there are new drugs and new substances promoted as party-drugs.

Web link

<http://www.drugtext.org/library/articles/niesink.htm>

View PDF