

The confusing case of NRG-1

Author(s)

Brandt SG, Sumnall HR, Measham F et al.

Published

Friday, January 1, 2010 - 12:00

Publisher

British Medical Journal

Volume

341

Page(s)

c3564

Abstract

Since the recent ban on mephedrone, several alternative products have been introduced on internet websites. One of the most prominently discussed second generation products is Energy 1 (NRG-1), also advertised as naphyrone (naphthylpyrovalerone, O-2482), which originated from a group of compounds previously described in the medicinal chemistry.

Web link

<http://www.bmj.com/content/341/bmj.c3564.extract>

View PDF